

Aneurysm (Aortic) preop

Nr.	Nursing Diagnosis	Date	Nursing Intervention/s and tasks	Sign.
	Ineffective tissue perfusion Related factors: Hypervolemia Mechanical reduction of venous and/or arterial blo Symptoms / Risk factors: Abdominal pain or tenderness Altered blood pressure outside of acceptable param Diminished arterial pulsations Weak or absent pulses Irritability Outcome / Goal: Peripheral pulses present and strong Skin color and temperature normal (specify) _____ Patient has reduced risk of complication from disease		Vital Signs Monitoring Monitor patient's vital signs and heart rythm every ____hours Monitor urine output Circulatory Precautions Pain Management Instruct patient to relax and rest Administer O2 as orderd Optimize the patient's comfort in bed Administer medication as prescribet Obs. pain (effectivnes of medication) Analgesic Administration
	Decreased cardiac output Related factors: Altered Stroke Volume Symptoms / Risk factors: Decreased peripheral pulses Oliguria Restlessness Rupture of aorta Progressive dissection Outcome / Goal: HR rate levell _____ Blood pressure level: _____ Breating rate level _____ Oxygen saturation level: _____		Hemodynamic Regulation Administer medication, IV fluids and blood as orderd Prepare patient for surgery (if planned) Palpate peripheral pulses
	Anxiety Related factors: Threat of death Environment Health status Symptoms / Risk factors: Confusion Blocking of thought Difficulty concentrating Fearful Outcome / Goal: Will experience a reduction in anxiety		Anxiety reduction Reduce unnecessary externa stimuli Spend time talking with resident. Allow to express feelings. Teaching: Procedure/Treatment Explain all procedure as appropriate
	Deficient knowledge Related factors: Unfamiliarity with disease and treatment Cognitive limitation Symptoms / Risk factors: Inaccurate follow through of instruction Inappropriate or exaggerated behaviors (e.g., hyst Multiple questions Outcome / Goal: Patient verbalize understanding of disease		Teaching: Disease Process Assess knowledge of the disease and treatment	