

Disturbed sensory perception

Nr.	Nursing Diagnosis	Date	Nursing Intervention/s and tasks	Sign.
	Disturbed sensory perception Related factors: Brain tissue destruction Compression of Brain Symptoms / Risk factors: Alterations in sense of balance or gait disturbance Change in vision Diminished motor coordination paresthesia Outcome / Goal: Patient doesn't experience falls or injury		Environmental Management Adjust environment to promote patients comfort Ascertain and validate client's perceptions Assess infant for physiological signs/behavioral cues indicating stress Discuss the need for removing environmental barriers in the home Encourage client to watch feet when appropriate Evaluate for visual deficits. Note loss of visual field, Reduce unnecessary externa stimuli Review pathology of individual condition.	