

Risk for impaired parent/infant/child

Nr.	Nursing Diagnosis	Date	Nursing Intervention/s and tasks	Sign.
	Risk for impaired parent/infant/child attachr Related factors: Developmental transition Family conflicts Symptoms / Risk factors: Anxiety associated with the parent role Inability of parents to meet personal needs Lack of privacy Physical barriers Premature infant, ill infant/child who is unable to effectiv Separation Substance abuse Outcome / Goal: Properly identify infant to assure correct family associatio Recognize and resolve conflict appropriately		Parenting Promotion Asses parents understanding and expectations of infants future Assist parents to gain a realistic view of capabilities of infant Assist parents to gain a realistic view of infant's capabilities Encourage and allow expression of feelings by individuals Identify patterns of interaction Inform parents of neonate's immediate needs Place newborn in mother's/father's arms as possible Provide appropriate information in the event of unanticipated complications Refer to family therapy groups Share information gained from initial physical assesment of infant	